DEAR GRADUATES,

Your appropriate class motto, NOT AT THE TOP, BUT CLIMBING, is not only a statement of fact, but also, at your graduation, the expression of an ideal. To reach the top in material success is a goal reached by very few. It is better that way, because so few can stand worldly success. Most people achieve greater happiness in just climbing. It is the same in spiritual success. Only one has reached the top, our Blessed Lady. All others achieve their happiness in just climbing. If our final moment finds us still climbing, even though we be for from the top, we shall be judged a success.

REV. JOHN QUINLIVAN, O. M. I.

Sodality

A two-week, Sodality project: to know and be known by everyone in high school. Each student wore a paper slip bearing her name. Mary A. Davis, Norma Jenschke, Consuelo Rodriguez, Marilyn Ullrich.

Sodality officers discuss problems with Retreat-Master. Marilyn Ullrich, prefect; Mary Allie Davis, secretary; Rev. E. Collins, O. M. I., Norma Jenschke, treasurer; Consuelo Rodriguez, vice-prefect.

"Vocations" is always an interesting topic for retreatants. Committee chairmen view the bulletin board portraying the various "steps of the religious life." Beverly Kutac, Joan Richter, Alice Medina.

October-Rosary Month

Jane Deason puts the finishing touches on the Bulletin Board while Beverly Kutac attaches another family name to one of the beads. Evelyn Yturri is hoping that the inner circle will soon be decorated with family names also.

OUR ANNUAL MAY PROCESSION

Mary's month was ushered in with a special procession in her honor. All the grammar grades and the high school paid tribute to our heavenly Queen by placing bouquets on her altar while the traditional May hymns were sung. The Marian Choiristers in white evening dresses and wearing delicate white net veils, adorned with sequins formed an archway of gladioli through which the queen, her court and attendants wended their way to Our Lady's altar.

Acknowledging the honor given her, Diane of the House of Bellinger, escorted by John Mitchell, steps forth to reign as the "Sweetheart" of the Valentine dance sponsored by the Junior Class.

As the "Sweetheart" and her honorees are escorted from the stage, they lead the Grand March.

In the land of little red hearts and cupids, the high school girls and their dates enjoy an evening of dancing to music which seems to come straight from cupid's valentine.

The Belles of St. Mary's

After Bell Time

The beginning of March marked high time for the Seniors to begin the production of "Jane Eyre," this year's play. Thirteen seniors who survived the tryouts were chosen to work under the able direction of Mrs. Leila Pyron Greenlee.

Spending many hours learning their lines and cues was enjoyable work for the cast. Their efforts were well rewarded by an appreciative audience at San Pedro Playhouse.

The following made up the cast of characters: Mary Elizabeth Joeris as Jane Eyre, Mary Allie Davis as Mrs. Fairfax, Jane Neal as Leah, Amy Lou Butler as Grace Poole, Agnes Adamo as The Woman, Margaret Gassmann as Mr. Rochester, Kathleen O'Brien as Adele, Rose Marie Bettge as Lady Ingram, Marilyn Ullrich as Blanche, Leota Mize as Mary, Jane Deason as Frederick Lynn, Maxine Garcia as Mr. Mason, and Mary Ann Veltman as Mr. Wood.

ANN MARIAN CLUB HAS GOOD SLOGAN

The Latin Club of St. Mary's High School, San Antonio, got under way late in the fall, when we had the election of officers. For the year of 1949-50 we chose as President, Beverly Kutac; Vice President, Martha Petraitis; Secretary, Joan Richter; Treasurer, Barbara Sangalli; Recording Secretary, Margie Emge; Typist, Mary Grace Ward.

After the election of officers, plans were made to carry out some projects. At frequent intervals we have vocabularly matches and to encourage a good response our teacher gives a prize. An exhibit of Latin Project Books with unique attractive cover designs were on display the week before Semi-Annuals. The students' books that were selected as outstanding were: Barbara Sangalli, a second year Latin student; Jean Kucera, Lorraine Wilhelm, and Marie Emge, first year Latin students.

The slogan, "Latin Lives Today," chosen by the Ann Marian Club, has proved a grand incentive for the fifty Latin students.

WE ARE LEAVING . . .

Our Last Will and Testament

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

As we, the Seniors of 1950, leave our beloved St. Mary's, we wish to make known and publish our last will and testament.

To our Pastor, Father John Quinlivan, we make known our deepest gratitude for his spiritual guidance, and his many efforts to better our moral standing.

To Sister Finian, our principal, we leave our deepest gratitude for her guidance and supervision in "Morality," "Religion," and "Education."

To the Fathers and Sisters at St. Mary's, we give our thanks and appreciation for their thoughtfulness during our stay at St. Mary's.

To our St. Mary's . . . we wish to carry with us the rememberance of the years we spent here. We also wish to leave our spirit of co-operation to all our "followers."

To the juniors, we leave the title "SENIORS" and our thanks for a wonderful Prom.

NOTE TO PARENTS

Parents are requested to send their children on time. Tardiness is a great detriment to the progress of pupils. Pupils are required to bring a written excuse for their absence.

The accompanying report will be sent every six weeks, and will exhibit the work of the pupil. Please examine carefully, sign and return to the teacher. If the report is not satisfactory please consult the teacher or principal of the school.

An essential condition to the success of the school is the support and co-operation of parents.

All pupils whose general average is D are entitled to promotion.

No pupil shall be entitled to promotion whose deportment is not satisfactory.

Now it's time for us to leave you—— though we love you so as you must know. Can't you tell by the way we've been act - ing: How we walked! How we laughed!
Now we'll cry! As we make our way down the aisle.
—— Now we'll miss each girl. ——each Sister's smile. We will ne'er e'er for - get you've been true.—— So, Saint Mar - ry's High good - by.——

CLASS PRAYER: Prayer of St. Francis Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is discord, union;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light, and
Where there is sadness, joy.

Class Prophecy

We, the undersigned, feel that we have a strange gift—clairvoyance,—ability to dream, or perhaps, just the ability to figure things out. At any rate, we offer you that specimen of our gift, hoping that you will check up on it some time in the near future to see how nearly right we were!

Miss Agnes Adamo, the newspaper woman, has received a promotion and is now in charge of the column, "Aunt Aggie's Advice to Teen-Agers."

Miss Jean Beeson, now located in Boston, is an executive in one of the most industrious brokerage firms in the East.

The Medical Association is proud to report on the amazing surgical work of Dr. Earstrum, nee Miss Rose Marie Bettge.

Mrs. Frank Sinclair, nee Miss Amy Lou Butler, was seen parading her tiny twins up and down the main streets of the neighborhood not very long ago.

Miss Mary Cadena, the noted club woman, is now working on the project "Sidewalks on the Highways," in order to cut down the death rate of hitch hikers.

We have recently heard that Miss Mary Allie Davis is very busy featuring her own art exhibit in San Antonio, Texas.

Miss Marian du Menil, making her second million on shellcraft earrings. . . .

Miss Jane Deason, first Texas girl to swim the English Channel. . . .

Miss Barbara Dury, touring Europe with Black Hills Passion Play. . .

Miss Madeline Froboese, starting her first year as principal of St. Mary's. . .

Navy Nurse Maxine Garcia, the sailor's "Florence Nightingale," is now on foreign duty in the Philipines.

Miss Margie Gassman, typist for Texas A & M president . . .

Miss Shirley Hamilton, who has been studying under the famous singer, Padnosii, is being scheduled for a musical recital in Carnegie Hall.

Miss Norma Jenschke, U. S. A., has finally returned to the scene of her school days after her varied experience in war relief work in foreign countries.

The Gimbles Dept. Store is fast becoming the store of the day under the able direction of its business manager, Miss Nell Ann Jaeckle.

A novelty swing band is now featuring Miss Mary Elizabeth Joeris as its distinguished band leader.

Miss Gertrude Kelly, Secretary at Chancery Office in charge of Legion of Decency of San Antonio Diocese. . ..

Miss Helen Kotzur, newest star of stage and television. . .

Miss Dolly Loef is the pride of the National Broadcasting System, mainly because of her "Bedtime Stories for the Little Ones."

Mrs. A. N. Bumble, nee Miss Frances Lutz, won first prize at the Annual Country Fair with her delicious assortment of apple pies.

Miss Dora Lee Mainz is now lecturing to the veterans of World War II on the principles of "A Younger and More Active Army and Navy."

Miss Kitty Malone, the school nurse, is energetically trotting around from one school to another, counting little heart beats and examining tiny teeth.

Miss Leota Mize, Power's model,now being seen around town in a brand new Cadillac convertible.

Miss Edna Naylor, who has charge of the interior decorating department at Macy's, Fifth Avenue, is being consulted in connection with the bridal suites of the Waldrof Astoria.

Miss Jane Neal, now in Africa, is acting as missionary to the blackfaced Ubangi tribes of the Belgian Congo.

Miss Kitty O'Brien, owning the best wheat farms in the State of Iowa. . .

Miss Rita Reyes, the noted secretary, has just received an appointment as secretary to the President of the United States.

Miss Connie Rodriguez, new supervisor of the childrens' ward at Santa Rosa Hospital. . .

Miss Helen Marie Schuchart, air hostess for Eastern Air Lines, was interviewed today as to her idea of the perfect air passenger.

Miss Rosalie Trueheart, the famous blonde-haired model, is now busy visiting old friends at home.

Miss Marilyn Ullrich, the beautiful and talented star of the New York stage, is now back from her personal appearance tour abroad.

Mrs. Joe Stoople, the former Miss Mary Ann Veltman, is lecturing on "Care of Babies" at the Municipal Auditorium.

Miss Margaret White, Professor of Geometry at Yale. . .

Miss Mary Grace Ward, the perfect secretary, is writing a book on the subject "Typing and Shorthand in Six Easy Lessons."

Miss Lois Winterborne occupies the greater part of her time hopping from town to town, gathering bits of news for the Daily Tribune.

GRADUATES OF 1950 . . . Congratulations!

Joske's of Texas and the Youth of Southwest Texas have long been "good companions." For Joske's of Texas is more than just a store, it's a personality . . . always hospitable, always ready to serve you through large stocks, newest fashions and value that let you keep to your budget. Young folks like the warm friendliness of this store and you see them here often, buying with the confidence they place in a real friend.

Because of the deep friendship between Youth and Store Joske's of Texas has grown steadily greater. It's now considered one of the most beautiful stores in America . . . like a whole city of shops under one roof—always waiting to please you, your family, your friends.
